To Our Parents.

The moon is rising from her bed of mist,
 And with her rays a silvery stream has kissed;
 So to our message, parents, kindly list:
 As this silver sparkling stream
 Flows ever to the lake of dream,
 So flows our love serene.
 Accept dear parents, with this book
 Our love, which ever like yon brook;
 Flows onward to thee, endlessly.

To Our Parents

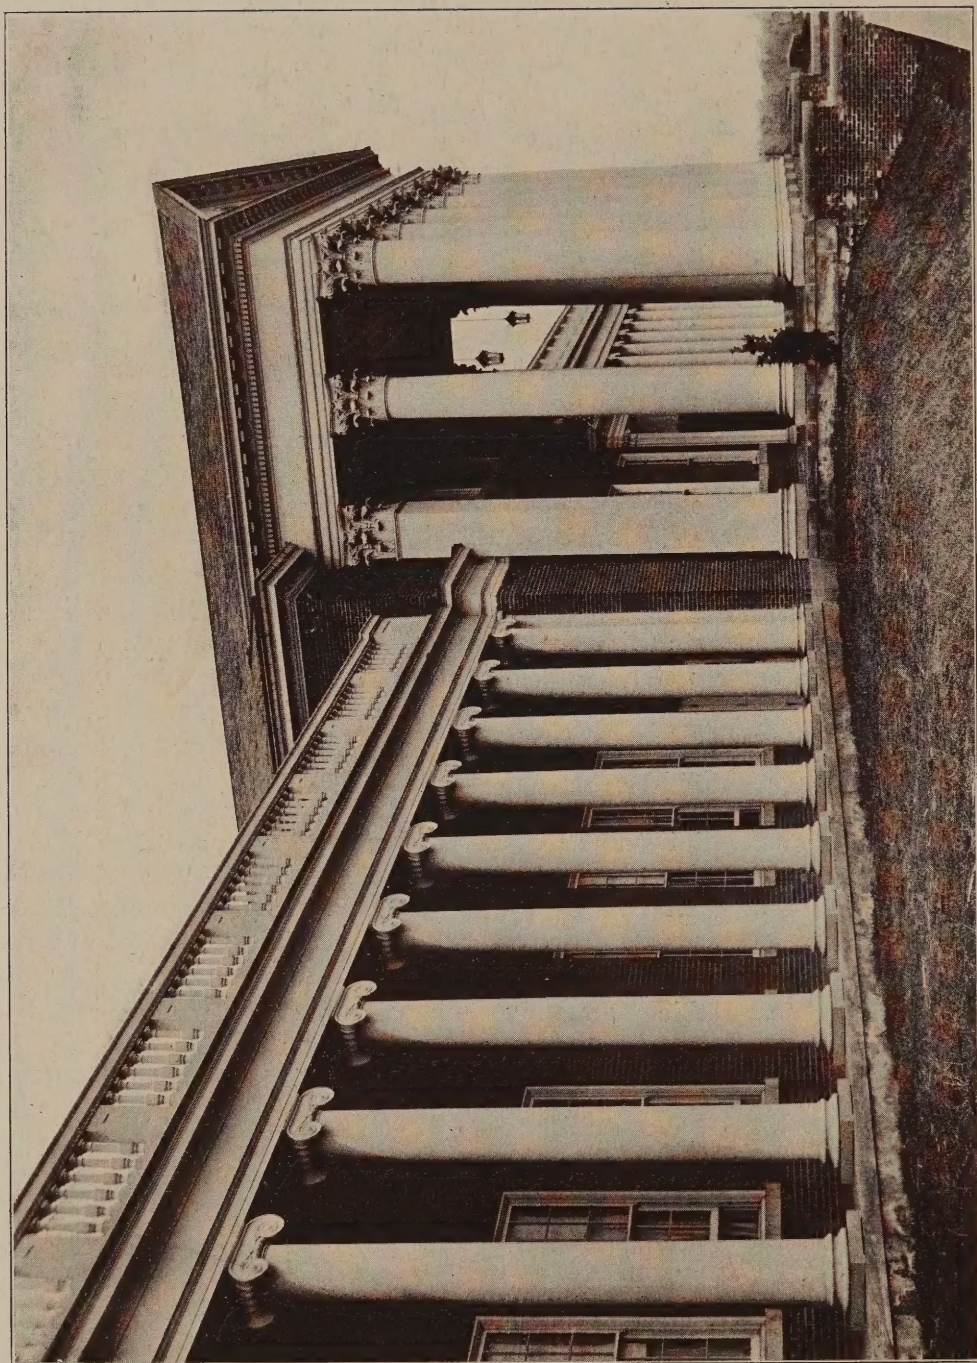

THE time has at last arrived. We, the class of '25, stand upon the threshold of a new existence, gazing out into the great unknown. Our straining eyes cannot clearly discern what lies before us; yet we are without fear.

Before taking the final step and forever closing the door upon the happy memories which forever cluster about the past four years, let us spend a brief moment in retrospect and see by what means we progressed to this point.

How did it happen that we did not become diverted into some lesser, though far more alluring, by-path as many of our less-fortunate brothers did; thus never to attain the goal of our ambitions, but to spend the rest of our days in regret; struggling blindly on, unable to turn back, even though the by-way, which was at first so inviting, has become nothing more than a stony rut? Whom have we to thank for having kept us on the straight though narrow way? Ourselves? In part, perhaps. But let us consider for a moment. Would we have kept on if it had not been for gentle directing hands guiding and helping us over the hard places? Would we not also have been lured into side paths had it not been for a wisdom greater than our own, which looked into the future and saw the necessity forever urging us onward and upward? We feel certain that most of us would not.

Therefore, as a feeble expression to our parents, of the love, appreciation and gratefulness we feel toward them for their earnest solicitude, patience, and inspiration, the class of '25 dedicates this issue of the HANDLIAN.

MAIN ENTRANCE

FOREWORD

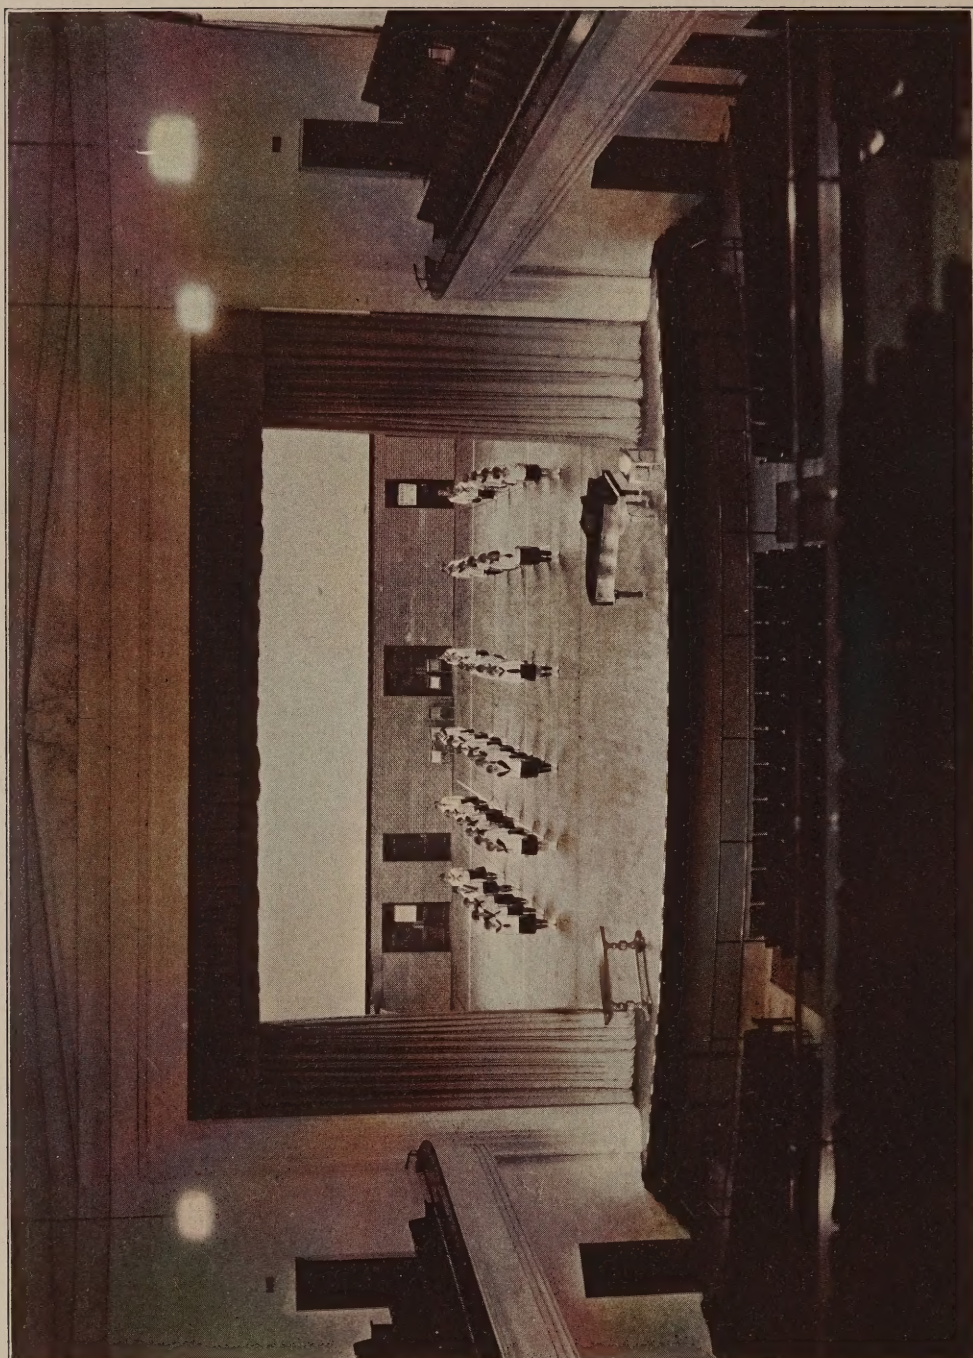

In this the fourth volume of the

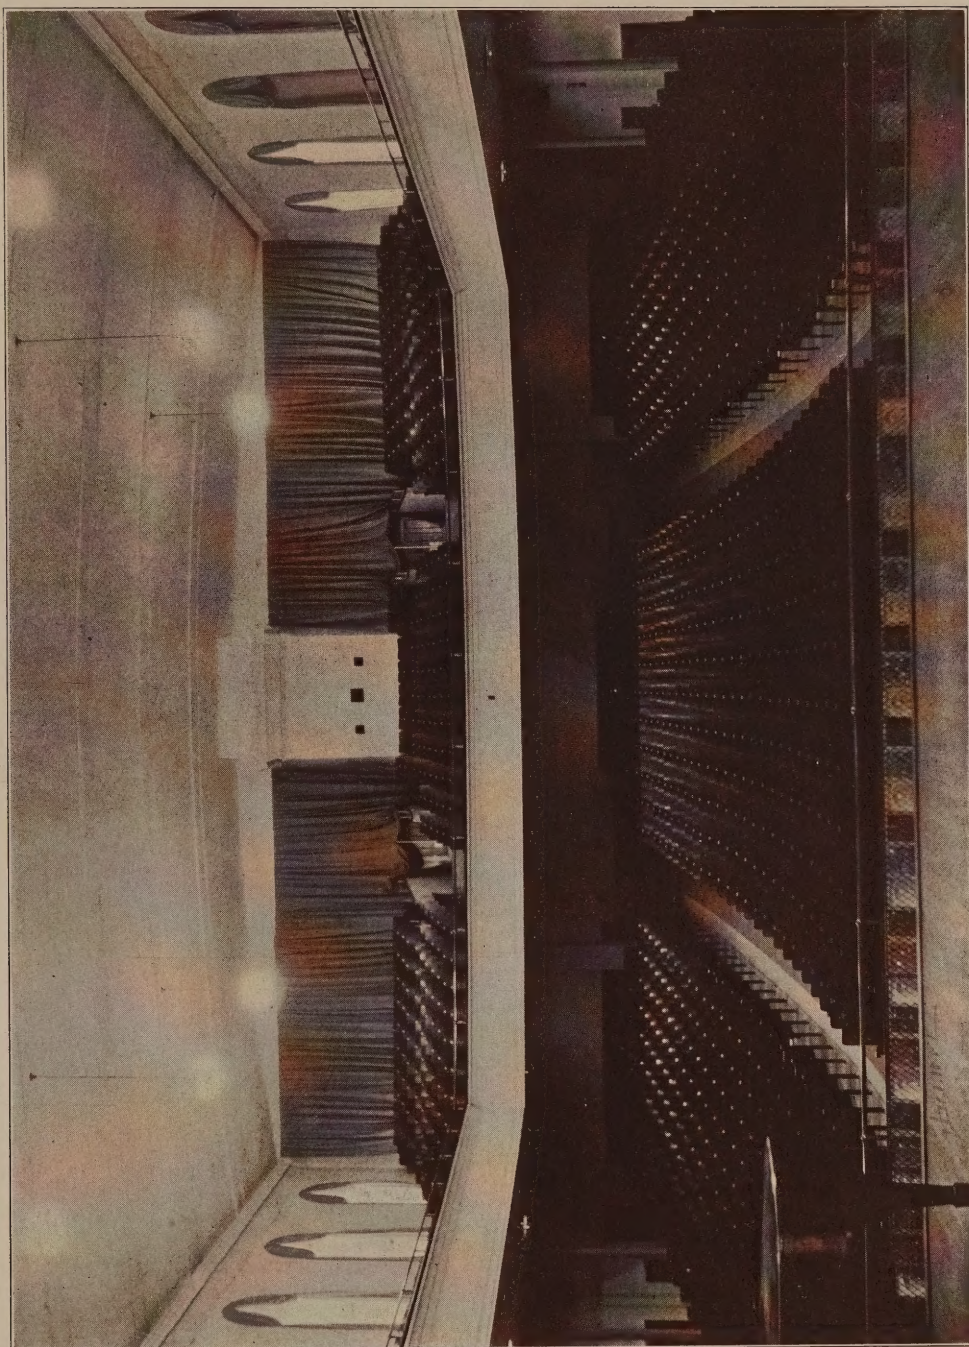

HANDLIAN

we have endeavored to present to the school and to the public an Annual which will give a true record of our school activities; which will inspire future classes to even greater achievements; and as the years roll by will keep memories fresh and friendships green.

SCHOLASTIC RESUME

THE year 1925 has been one of the best in the history of Handley High School from a scholastic standpoint. We have been carrying on many activities, but none of them has interfered with the normal progress of class work. While there have been many students who have not done as well as they wished, on the whole the year has been one that gratified the students as well as the teachers. From the time of the opening of the doors of the school in September until the last examination in June, the teachers have seen to it that the student had a plenty to do. The students, on the other hand, have accepted their tasks with little grumbling, and the results have been cooperation and mutual satisfaction.

SENIOR SPONSORS

MISS VIRGINIA G. SILVER

Miss Silver has been our "mainstay and defense" at all our parties. She is a wonderful organizer, and to her goes the credit for the success of many of our undertakings. Without her cheerful cooperation, unlimited ability and her inestimable thoughtfulness we would not have progressed this far on our road to learning. Truly we have been blessed in the choice of our sponsors.

MR. GARLAND R.
QUARLES

In Mr. Quarles we have a sponsor who has worked at all times for the best interests of the class. He is ever willing and ready to help on every project which will redound to the benefit of the Senior Class and the School. His work on the Handlian and the operetta, "In Arcady", cannot be overestimated. He has proved himself to be a real teacher, sponsor and friend to each of us. We take this opportunity to voice our appreciation and thanks to him for his efforts in our behalf.

HANDLIAN

MADELINE MARY ANDERSON

IF we were to choose a girl who is attractive, in the Senior Class, our first thought would be Madeline. She always does the thing she should, the thing that is going to make someone happy. She can do many things and do them well, yet, every Senior loves her, not because of what she does but rather what she is—the friend to every Senior. From the beginning of the class of '25 she has been one of the most popular girls.

EULA JEANNETTE AFFLECK

EULA is one of the members of the class of '25 that can always be depended upon to uphold the class' reputation. Is she loyal? Just ask her many friends and admirers if you would know the extent and depth of her loyalty. Eula can always be depended upon to do any task that falls to her lot. She is also musically inclined. For the past four years she has been a faithful and competent member of the Glee Club.

J. CARLISLE BLACKBURN

IT was only in the fall of 1921 that this brilliant young man was added to this renowned class. In spite of the fact that he is one of our youngest, we all have a great deal of respect for him. Since his coming he has been himself a worthy friend. He is always ready for a good time; to enjoy it, and help make it a success; and stands for everything that is gentleman-like. He is an apt student, and leads his class in all scholastic studies in the way of high marks. His brilliant earnestness on the Trail Blazer, makes the paper an outstanding feature of high school life. Earnestness and diligent effort are his best characteristics.

LUELLE FRANCES ANDERSON

LUELLE has always been accounted one of the class assets, and where pep is needed in any enterprise, LuVella is promptly suggested to supply the lack. LuVella is an apt student and has always stood high in her classes. She is fond of music and is always willing to put forth an effort to "soothe the savage beast" with some of her jazzy repertoire. Perhaps, as they say, LuVella will teach; and lucky the students who obtain so efficient an instructor.

HANDLIAN

SARAH ELIZABETH BAYLIS

IF once Sarah is your friend, she is always your friend. She is a gentle, resourceful pupil. She is rather quiet and is a very deep thinker. Her quiet demeanor and tactful ways have won her many friends. Sarah does not enter into social life as much as she might, but she does her class work in such a manner that she is considered quite an energetic student. In the fall she will enter a school in our neighboring state, West Virginia, where she will impart to her pupils the knowledge she has gained at Handley.

VIRGINIA EVELYN BAYLIS

FIVE years ago from her country home in the West Virginia hills Evy came to Handley. Although she enjoys her winters with us, when spring comes the call of the open returns, and Evy again goes back to her favorite haunts on the shore of the "Capon" river. She is rich in friends. Always when the call comes she is ready and willing to uphold the standards of the classes in every way possible. In the fall Evy leaves for a large city where she will go in training as a nurse.

GARLAND McLEOD CANTER

GARLAND has developed into quite a fine basketball player and will certainly be missed when the candidates are called for next year. Last year the Dramatic Club gave a play. Garland took the leading part. Whenever the Glee Club appears in public, we see Garland among the tenors. While looking for an efficient boy for assistant advertising manager, the editor selected Garland for the job.

HAZEL IRENE BAILEY

HERE is another girl whose loss will be keenly felt by Handley. Hazel's enviable career is the result of a certain combination hard to defeat; work and ability. "All in all" Hazel has made good use of her days at Handley. She is a likable girl, and if she goes after everything in future life as she has her studies, there will be no doubt of her success. Rumor says Hazel leaves us this year to attain fame in a college.

HANDLIAN

MARY BARBARA BOWMAN

MARY is one of the most outstanding members of our class. We discovered that she had a hidden talent, and she later became our class poet; but aside from courting the Muses she shows her ability in many other lines. Mary is a versatile sport. She can play tennis and go for long hikes. She is a real friend and knows what real friendship is. These accomplishments, together with a winning personality, combine to make her an unusually attractive and popular member of the class.

VIRGINIA BYWATERS

VIRGINIA came to us, quite a modest little girl, at the beginning of our high school career, and she has been "loyalty" itself ever since. She is of a quiet and refined nature, and the best of all is her friendly smiles and cheery greetings. Virginia is a very welcome person at all our parties, and her presence and willingness are always quite an addition. She is studious, and puts forth her most earnest efforts in all her studies.

CHARLES IRVIN CATHER

ABOUT the most versatile boy in our senior class is Irvin Cather. He can be relied upon at any time. He is a gentleman in the true sense of the word. As a cheer leader he is excellent, and he has an important place to fill in the Glee Club, too. If the business world calls him into fields unknown and difficult, we know he will remain the same good sport and succeed. He has been a model student at Handley, and he will become a model in the outside world as well. We wish him all good luck.

CONSTANCE VIRGINIA BUCKLEY

CONNIE" has not been with us long, as the earlier part of her school career was spent elsewhere. She came in our class rather slow to make friends, but after she established a friendship, it was sure to last. Her most striking characteristic is loyalty. She certainly can stick to a friend in happiness and never fails to sympathize in sorrow. She has won the hearts of all her classmates through her willingness. No matter what you ask her to do, it is "I'll try" with Connie.

HANDLIAN

JANE WILDA CAPPER

HERE we have a type of girl who is wholly individual. She is fond of out-door life and is characteristically frank and sincere. She chooses a few friends in whom she places infinite trust, and does not brag about her "affaires de couer" as the majority of girls today are wont to do.

Wilda is very active in needle work and designing. We do not know what fate has in store for her, but we hope it is something good.

GERTRUDE VIRGINIA CARPER

IF there is a more faithful and more studious girl than Gertrude, I'm sure that the class of '25 would like to see her. Gertrude is noted for her neat appearance and cheerful attitude toward work, and her lesson papers are models of neatness. Gertrude is a friendly soul, and is always willing to lend a helping hand on a difficult proposition of any kind. With her scholastic ability Gertrude really should devote her future to the imparting of her knowledge to others and to "training the young ideas to shoot."

WALTER FRANKLIN DENT

HVERY playful member of the senior class is Walter Dent. He is a likeable, fun-loving youth, and never tired of teasing. He does not seem to worry over anything, including his school work, which, however, has lately shown much improvement. Athletics come in for a share of his time. He has made good at basketball and is an expert swimmer. His popularity is attested by his many friends.

HELEN VIRGINIA CARPER

HELEN, with her big heart and wonderful ability, has twice broken her health in aiding us, individually and as a class. There is not one of us who does not count her as a most valued friend. We all admire her versatility—for Helen can do almost anything and she does everything that she undertakes, well. The class of '25 would in all probability not hold its present lofty position so securely had it not been for Helen's efforts.

HANDLIAN

MARY EMILY CRISMAN

WHENEVER anyone wants a cure for the "blues" he should go to Mary, because she is a sure cure. No social affair that we could have would be complete without her. There is a serious side to Mary, though, and she has her spells of studying and worrying that fall to the lot of most seniors. Mary expects to enter Garfield Hospital in September, and we know that with the sunny disposition she possesses and her gift of making friends she will merit success.

ELSIE ELIZABETH CARPENTER

ELSIE is one of the girls of the class of '25 that we just can't do without. She is one of the best all-round sports which will ever leave the portals of old Handley. Other adjectives that would describe Elsie accurately would be sympathetic and fun-loving, for she is a splendid combination of both. Every member of the class is proud to call her a friend. She is full of fun, for no one of our class has the hearty laugh possessed by her.

JOHN VERNON EDDY

IN John Eddy we find one who is among the best students in the class of '25. For several years John has stood near the top in his studies. As editor of the Trail Blazer he has worked with unceasing diligence toward the perfection of that publication. John has not yet been struck to any perceptible extent by the "Lady Bug," though several fair members of the Senior class hold a decided attraction for him. John is a staunch friend, a good student and a model "Rotarian".

GRACE VIRGINIA CARPENTER

HERE we have a student who has been faithful, loyal, and true to Handley. She has a tendency to make friends, and, above all, she regards them as near and dear friends. Grace has been a faithful member in the "Glee Club" for three years. She has always responded to calls. She entered into the class of '25 with heart and soul, thus helping to make it a successful class.

HANDLIAN

LUCY KEYS DEAN

JACK has been with us from the very start of our school life. She is a jolly good friend to everyone, and certainly makes the best of life. She is a good sport, always ready for fun, and never lacking in witty remarks.

With all her fun and wit she believes in making a success of whatever she attempts to do. When she works, she works; when she plays, she plays. She has not yet decided just what she will do next year, but we know she will always show the loyal spirit she has shown during the days spent at old Handley.

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH DeHART

CHARLOTTE is a most efficient young lady. She has always been so. Back in grammar school days she was always the first to work out her 'rithmetic problems. Charlotte is a real musician, too, but not many of us know how accomplished she is in this art, for she is a bit reticent about displaying her ability. Charlotte is out to make some man a good wife, for she is an excellent cook and excels in all things domestic. Present indications say that Charlotte will pursue a domestic career, not as a housekeeper, but as an instructor in that art.

ROBERT WICKERSHAM FORD

ROBERT came to us in the eighth grade and since then has become one of our most faithful members. He is not an athlete, but is an enthusiastic supporter of both athletics and military training. In the latter he has risen to rank of a non-commissioned officer. Robert is very quiet and has not stepped out with the fairer sex as yet.

THELMA MARGUERITE FANSLER

DIGNIFIED! That expresses Thelma to perfection. It has often been said that "still waters run deep," and this old adage has surely been proved in the case of Thelma. In giving you the idea that she is dignified I hope I did not impress you that she has no fun, for Thelma is one of the jolliest girls that we know of when there is a time for laughter.

HANDLIAN

IRENE STEVENS HEADLEY

FULL of fun and sparkling with wit, "Renie" is popular at all gatherings. She is capable, and reliable, and one of those rare pupils who always has her work in on time. Renie is a dandy basketball player, and a very graceful dancer. Sportsmanship is her middle name and she is just the kind of a girl everyone wants for a pal; and a girl no one forgets. Next year she will go into training in a hospital, where we all know she will make a success.

JOANNA FRANCES HOCKMAN

JO has been with the class all during our high school days. Many friends have been brought to her side on account of her tact and gracefulness. She speaks French quite easily. To her, Geometry is as clear as the open road. She has always applied herself diligently to her studies. She is one of the daintiest girls of '25. It is with a great deal of sorrow that we see "Jo" leave us to take her place in the world.

WILLIAM WOOD GLASS, III

GOOD old Bill, always a friend to everyone, always has a word of cheer, always willing to lend his helpful hand and work hard. As president of the Senior class Bill has led us manfully over the rough roads of success. This year's Handlian is a product of his unusual ability; and is sufficient evidence that he is one of its best editors. Bill possesses the "gift of gab" to a remarkable degree, and we are certain that he will make a fine salutatorian. He will begin the study of law at Washington and Lee University next fall, and we know that he will do fine work.

HELEN GARGES HARDY

IF one would search through the dictionary in an effort to find a word that would describe Helen, I think that he would stop at "versatile," for Helen is versatile. She is one of the few members of the Senior Class that can adapt herself to every condition that exists. She is the most sympathetic where sympathy is needed. She has humor; she has pathos; she is sad; she is merry. And these traits all together make her an all-around Handley girl.

HANDLIAN

GRACE LUCILLE JACKSON

GHIS precious specimen of the feminine sex is a worthy member of Handley High. Her school spirit is unsurpassed and talk 'bout "pep." Stop! Can't you see it written all over Jack? She has been with the class since babyhood days, and what would it do without her now she has gracefully grown into young womanhood? But, alas! She departs from Handley this year and then where? Why to State Teachers College, Harrisonburg, Virginia.

ELSIE MAE KREMER

ELSIE is a very demure little girl, and like all lovely flowers she only blossoms after a long care has been taken of her. She has blossomed for Handley though, and only recently did we discover her true bent as a poetess. Elsie's "courting of the Muse" has not been in vain we learn by perusing the "Trail Blazer" for nearly every edition has some new poem of hers, and each is better than the last. Elsie's future has not been definitely planned so far as college goes, but we predict the very best luck in the world.

STUART LEE GRANT

WHENEVER a hearty laugh is heard echoing down the halls of Old Handley, you may be sure that the sound proceeds from the lips of Lee. He is one of the members of this year's class that can always be depended upon to bring good cheer and friendly greetings to any gathering that he honors with his presence. Lee is a typical Handley boy, for no task is too difficult for his willing hands to perform, and never a frown crosses his smiling countenance.

MARY KATHERINE KLINE

OUR twins, the only ones that we have, are our treasures. Mary came to us from the class of '24 and, gay little body that she is, has been a benefit to us in many ways. She has always taken an active part in class affairs and professed an interest in us that we are sure was not simulated. In spite of the fact that she lived in the country and might have thus escaped our notice thru non-attendance at all of our social functions, Mary has endeared herself to us.

HANDLIAN

MABEL LEE KLINE

HERE we have a puzzle. The class of '24 left us a valuable heritage in Mary and Mabel, but it did not leave us the ability to discern the almost imperceptible difference between them. Mabel is very domestic, and when her career at "Old Handley" is through, perhaps she will take up a new career, the very finest in the world, that of applying her domestic knowledge first hand in her own home.

BESSIE KRAMER

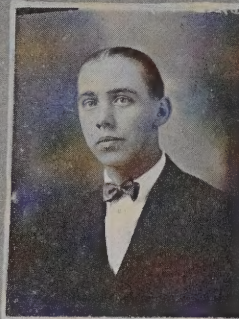

WHEN you want to express Bessie in a word or two just say, "She is a jolly good sport," and then emphasize the "jolly" part, because that is what she is. No matter how much it puts her out, she is right there to do any favor for you at any time. Bessie is a true Handley girl, full of loyalty and school spirit, and she sure can drive a "mean" Ford! She is one of those quiet girls who does not scatter her knowledge promiscuously.

WINSTON COURTNEY GRIM

IN a class of eighteen of the finest boys of Virginia, Winston stands out as one of the best. Have you ever seen the car that Winston made? Judge for yourself from that, and name him a youthful genius. Winston is a perfect "whiz" at Physics. If there is a party to be planned for, the brunt of the burden can be given to Winston and the "Powers that be" can rest assured that he will do his part well. Is Winston popular? Who, with his cheerful smile and his comradely manner, would not be a hit with boys and girls alike?

THELMA ELIZABETH KELRICAN

TED and her jokes are inseparable, she knows a joke for anything you may say, and generally ruins an argument by thinking of a joke that fits right in. Perhaps Ted's loyalty to old Handley and to the class of '25 is the quality that makes her so outstanding this year. Ted isn't always frivolous, and when she decides to do anything, you may be sure that she will do it to the best of her ability.

DOROTHY JANE KREMER

HERE our eyes meet a girl of strong character and convictions as well as one of reliability. Dorothy has had numerous responsibilities placed upon her during her high school career, and we have yet to see her fall through with any of them. For this reason our class has always put explicit faith in her. When it comes to writing and keeping minutes she is naturally in demand. Much can be said of her initiative, as she doesn't wait to be told what to do.

HAZEL BERTHA LODGE

HERE our eyes fall on a most unusual person. Hazel can justly pride herself on being different, for there are not many who are so versatile that do not have a failing in some line. A friend to a person is much to be desired and here we have a staunch one. She possesses a high sense of honor which one can not help but admire. Perseverance certainly belongs to her, for whatever she faces and does not accomplish immediately it is "try again".

AUBREY HARWELL

A VERY quiet member of the senior class is Aubrey Harwell, but his quietness has seemed to make him a very popular member, indeed. He has not been with us thru many years, as some others have; but he has become one of us, with the same spirit and mind. Courteous, generous, gentlemanly—these are the words that form his character as we have seen it.

VIRGINIA LEE LAMP

GINNY" is a jolly soul, and it must be true that everyone loves a person who laughs, for she has a most infectious giggle and everyone does love her. "Ginny" is an especially good student, and in Household Management, she shines. Domestic ability! If she can't be found in the kitchen making some delectable morsel to tempt a hungry man, it is because she is skillfully driving that big Buick down the "drag." After she has left old Handley, Ginny will either go in training or take further work in Domestic Science.

HANDLIAN

MILDRED TAYLOR LANDIS

MILDRED came to us this year, a cheerful little stranger from Weyer's Cave. Scarcely any time passed before she had made herself so indispensable to us that we felt as if she had been with us always. An excellent student, Mildred has steadily grown into the hearts of faculty and students alike. Marie and Mildred are regular "Siamese Twins", and what the two of them can't think of in the way of mischief just can't be thought of. Mildred has plenty of "pep" and initiative.

NATALIE BOALT McDONALD

HERE is one of our class artists! When you want a sunset painted or a poster drawn, Natalie is always ready to oblige. She is rather quiet, but is a favorite with everybody, on account of her pleasant manner and winning smile. She also shines on the athletic floor. To watch her jump against a taller center is a treat, and the basketball team next year will certainly miss her. Natalie studies very diligently and, consequently, makes good grades.

GEORGE FRANKLIN MILLER

ABOVE you see the picture of one George Franklin Miller, better known to his classmates as "Bevo". Having the rank of Captain of Company B, he holds the position with great pride and interest. On our football, basketball, and baseball teams he has done his best. His motto is to "do or die". He has shown he is a sport, a student and a friend to be proud of.

ISABELL MILLER

MARTINSBURG'S loss was sure-our gain when Isabell decided to enter H. H. S. this year. Besides being a good friend, we have found that she is a good student, and is able to concentrate on her studies. But by no means does Isabell work all the time, because she loves fun and has just as good a time as most anyone. Isabell has not quite decided as to what she will do next year, but we feel sure she will never forget the class of '25.

HANDLIAN

DIXIE DUTCHESS MASON

DERE we present to you a girl whom we are more than proud to call a member of the class of '25. "Dub" is one of our most popular and talented girls besides our best comedian and Debater. She represented Handley's debating team at the University of Virginia last spring. Her good nature and sense of humor have been two of her main characteristics. This is evident, because all the seniors appreciate her humor especially when they are lacking in spirit. Dixie, you are one of the girls who has been more loyal to the purple and made the gold to shine more brightly.

ELSIE MATHEWS

ELSIE came to us from England last year, and she is so much a part of our class that it seems as if she must have been with us from the first grade up, but then Elsie will always be at home wherever she goes because she is so jolly and pleasant, and unlike most of us, she can be very studious. Elsie is indeed a very bright girl, and we feel that whatever she choose to do, whether she stays in America or goes back to her homeland, will be a decided success.

JOHN MARSHALL WINKFIELD

MARSHALL is the star athlete of the Senior Class. In baseball as well as in basketball he has made an exceptionally fine showing. In basketball this year he has led all other players of the state by scoring the largest number of points. Marshall is quite a heart-breaker; in fact "he's the sheik", but we do not believe he is really aware of this fact. Douglas and he are bosom pals, and together they have many smashed hearts to their credit.

ISABELLE FRANCES NORTH

ISSIE has more life and "pep" about her than she really should —according to the faculty, for she is irrepressible. Independent is the word that expresses Isabelle exactly. She goes her own way so serenely that we who are not so strong-minded really envy her. Strength of character is very apparent to those who know her. We have no idea as to Isabelle's intentions for the future, she is too non-committal for that but we feel sure that she will be somewhere near Baltimore.

HANDLIAN

ELSIE LOVE PREFFITT

ELSIE is very well-liked by all. She is always ready to help in any worth-while thing. If any one needs assistance, she is willing to give it. She has a loving, gentle disposition, patient and accommodating—all these qualities will assist materially in making her career successful. Elsie is very business-like in her manner. Her business course will open up for her interesting lines, and we are sure that future has good things in store for her.

ELIZABETH JANE PLANK

ELIZABETH is one of the best members of the senior class. She is one of our quiet, diligent workers, sticking strictly to any task that is assigned to her, obtaining her end by the whole-hearted force that characterizes every thing that she does. Do not get the idea that Elizabeth studies her entire time, and does not enter into the fun of the class, for truly such is not the case. Often her merry laugh can be heard echoing over room 46, especially during lunch hour.

GEORGE ALLAN SCHWARZMAN

GES, this striking picture is an exact replica of one of the finest boys in the senior class. That's George. He came to us from Baltimore and since his arrival, six years ago, he has endeared himself to everyone. He is Business Manager of the Handlian, Debater, member of the Dramatic Club and many other school activities. Good-by! George. The class of '25 is proud of you.

MARY KATHERINE QUICK

QUICKIE—we all know her by that name, and it expresses her. Quick is one of our foremost athletes and that means a lot, for our girls are the best. When "Vite" sees what she wants, she goes straight for it, remembering, probably, "a straight line is the shortest distance between two points." Who hasn't seen "Quickie" with her curly red head held high, stepping on the gas in her "Buckey" and breaking all the traffic regulations made—"Et Mirable Dictu!"—getting away with it? She may go to William and Mary next year.

HANDLIAN

MARIE HOOVER RECHER

IN speaking of Marie, one's mind naturally turns to brilliance, for Marie is brilliant. In everything that Marie attempts she always excels, for of such is her nature. When playing any game, she puts her entire force and effort into it; and always comes out a winner, never a loser. That is shown by her whole-hearted playing on the basketball floor. As an athlete, she is almost perfect; as a scholar, she is an ideal one; and as fun loving, sympathetic, good all-around sport Marie is always on top.

JENNIE BERNETTA RITTER

JENNETTA is most talented in Dramatics. In most of the many dramatic productions in which she has featured she carries leading roles with the ease and skill of a professional. Then too, these qualities combined with her frank and energetic disposition, her athletic ability, and the high standard of scholarship which she upholds at all times tend to place her among the leaders in the senior class. She leaves our portals to enter Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

HOWARD HALLEY SHOCKEY

HOWARD is a staunch member of our class. He is a brilliant student in history; in fact it cannot be said he is a sluggard in any of his studies, for he does them all with due alacrity. He ranks with the best of the singers in the Glee Club; he is a good cheer leader, and his earnest spirit is shown in the Battalion where he performs his duty with zeal. No other words seem to characterize him so well as "semper paratus."

HELEN FRANCES RITTER

FUN-LOVING, whole-heartedness, and of a magnetic disposition are three of the best expressions that describe Helen as she really is. Helen is one of those few seniors who is never despondent. She is the same to every one of her friends. Helen has one of the most charming personalities of any senior of the class of '25. She is studious for in that she is a typical Handlian girl. Helen is planning to pursue further study in some higher institution.

HANDLIAN

FIETTA KIZER ROSENBERGER

FIETTA came to us in her tenth year from Gore High School, and since then has been loyal to that Marie attempts she always excels, is her motto. She is very studious and wisely realizes the wisdom of mingling fun with more serious affairs. Many friends of both sexes have been brought to her by her sweet and congenial disposition. Her friends wish her success and happiness in her future vocation as a nurse.

PAULINE HELENE SWINK

IN "Polly" one finds a true friend, a Handley girl full of loyalty and school spirit. She has a charming personality, underneath which lies a seriousness of purpose. Pauline is one of the song birds of our class, her musical nature reflecting in her personality. Ever smiling, she is a fountain of joy to all who know her. She fairly radiates "optimism." She is thoroughly dependable in every way. Surely her happy nature will carry her a long way toward the goal which she so greatly desires.

FRANKLIN WESLEY SMALTZ

LITTLE FRANK, as he is commonly called, would be an asset to any class. In every subject Franklin is above the average, but in Math and the languages you may be sure he excels. He also is a perfect wizard in Bookkeeping. Do not get the impression that Franklin is all studious, for he firmly believes in the old adage that "All work and no play makes Franklin a dull boy." Franklin is planning to attend V. P. I. next year.

MAYNARD LATOURANDAIS SUTPHIN

SUT came to us one year ago from the Flint Hill High School. She soon won our hearts with her friendliness and sweet disposition. Her friends are all real friends, and she is always ready to help them. Maynard works diligently and thus gets good marks. One of her best characteristics is good sportsmanship. Next year Maynard will go to Farmville.

HANDLIAN

ANNA AMELIA SEABRIGHT

ANN is one of the quietest members of our class, but this does not keep her from being a good sport. At games you will not find a more loyal and enthusiastic "rooter". Ann's scholastic standing is good, due to her studiousness and perseverance. If we want to glance farther into her accomplishments, we would discover that music does not hold any mean place.

EMMA MARION TURNER

ERE is one of the most fun-loving girls in our class. Any group or assembly is enlivened by her smile and witty words. Although very jolly and fun loving, Emma studies hard and consequently knows the joy of opening her report and finding a number of A's. Latin is one of her favorite subjects. Emma has made many fast friends at Handley who regret very much that she is not coming back next year.

MARGARET LENORE SHACKLETT

SINCERITY is the keynote of Margaret's character. She has one of the highest scholastic standings in the Senior class, and yet she is connected with numerous outside activities. Really we envy her serenity about exam time when all is fuss and flurry with the rest of us poor mortals. When accosted as to her apparent ease, Margaret smiles gently and "knocks us cold" by stating that she's exempt from 'most everything. Margaret expects to go to Scarrett next year.

EVELYN WISECARVER

EVELYN is one of the most dependable girls in our class. If any project is put forth for the benefit of school, class or classmates Evelyn is among the first to enroll in it. Evelyn is an efficient student, and her lessons are always prepared. She not only devours intellectual food but she is interested in basketball and tennis. The Glee Club will lose a good voice by her graduation. Evelyn is thinking very seriously of further education at Randolph-Macon College.

HANDLIAN

CLAIRE WATSON STONE

CLAIRE came to us back in the days of May, 1922, from Maury High School of Norfolk, Virginia, and we may say here that it was not long until we all loved her. She is quiet, and unassuming, but she is classed as one of the most brilliant members of the class of '25. Among Claire's achievements are being a poetess, a member of the Glee Club, an active worker on the Trail Blazer staff and basketball squad. "Pebbles" is returning to the portals of "Old Handley" to take a post graduate course next year.

MARGARET JANE SNYDER

WIT has generously been given to Margaret. Whenever there is a witty remark made, you can surely count on it coming from her. Her disposition is one much to be admired as she has a cheery buoyant way always. When reliability is mentioned, we recall that she is a proud possessor of this, too. If ever she is given a task to do she puts forth an effort that makes the task complete.

DOUGLAS SALE

HERE we find one of the "silent but mighty" boys of our class. "Doug" is a mighty wielder of the willow stick in baseball, as well as champion on the basketball floor. He is also mighty attractive to the fair sex. Doug doesn't express his opinion until it is called for, but when he does you may be sure it is a good one. Dough has helped on many occasion; and it is said that still water runs deep, so we are looking for great achievements from him.

HARRIET PEARSON

DID you ever go into Assembly in the morning or go to an entertainment out in town and after hearing the announcement that Miss Harriet Pearson would sing, see a slender dignified girl walk upon the stage, with a composed air; and did you ever feel a thrill of surprise when her small mouth opened and such a volume of song poured forth? Harriet has a glorious voice, and she isn't a bit selfish with it. She is ready to sing on all occasions and to help out any cause.

HANDLIAN

MADELINE WHITLOCK

MADELINE is one of our jolly seniors that can never be compared with any other member of the class for she is different. She is one of our talented songsters, who can be depended upon by both teachers and pupils to do her best at all times. She is jolly; she is depressed; she is calm and collected; she is in a spirit of revelry. All in one mood; and still underneath it all lies the true Madeline; the girl that the entire student body admires. Madeline is a student of high intellect, high aspirations.

MARY KATHLEEN WOOD

NOW many times during our three years of Senior High School and especially this last trying year has "Kitty" relieved some tense situation for us by her refreshing giggle? Kitty loves fun and she mixes her fun with her work and consequently does both well. Kitty has been with us since we started in high school, six years ago, and we have found her a loyal friend and an all around sport.

MARY ALICE YOST

TOMMY" is one of the best friends anyone could have. She is quiet and reserved, but once you get below the surface, you find a lovable personality. A good student and good sport is a rare combination. In Tommy you will find both. She is one upon whom responsibility rests easily. She has a big generous heart and a way that makes us glad to be with her. She has made for herself a fine place in the hearts of those who know her. Next year she will reap the good results of patient endeavor.

BOYD SWITZER

ADHERING strictly to the rules of society, and yet full of boyish tricks is Boyd. A good student, reliable and honest, expresses him and his character, as has been shown to his classmates at Handley. He is always ready to take any responsibility, that would be for the good of his class or school and to carry it through. He is a person on whom to depend in a critical moment.

SENIORS

Class Will

NOW YE ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we the Class of 1925, of Handley High School, of Winchester, a city of the Shenandoah Valley, in the State of Virginia, most of us being of sound mind, and being in a disposing mood, do declare this to be our last will and testament:

To those persons who in the rightful scheme of things have been known as Juniors, our lawful successors, heirs and assigns, we do give and bequeath:

FIRST. That honorary title which has brought to us such dignity in action and bearing; namely, that of being called a Senior.

SECOND. Those numerous and varied privileges for which we have so ardently longed since Freshman days. They are as follows:

Permission to have any test or examination given over in case it is flunked and,

Permission to have all final exams given two weeks before Commencement.

For these gracious and bountiful privileges on the part of that august body which is known as the faculty, we have ever been grateful. It is for this high estate that you have striven, dear Juniors—rejoice therein!

To the under classmen, Freshmen and Sophomores, we bequeath the right to harass, censor and respect our successors as they have always done us.

To the incoming Freshmen we do give and bequeath the ability to ask silly questions and act green, to disturb the routine of the school and get away with it, having youth and inexperience to use as excuses. Also the following wisdom acquired thru' experience (four years of it): It is better always, to agree with a Senior than to argue.

To Mr. Jarman we bequeath the right to make all the rules that he may care to for the oncoming Senior Class. Also we bequeath to Mr. Jarman the privilege of writing excellent recommendations for all of us to our respective colleges. (Hand 'em a line, Mr. Jarman; you know how.)

To the Janitor and to Mr. Stewart Bell we do bequeath our present abode and all the grounds pertaining to it. With the injunction that they shall have said estate; namely, the Handley School, repaired and all debts paid thereon within thirty days after the reading of this document. Also that upon the decease of these heirs the property shall be sold at public auction and the money used for the erection of a Home for Those Unfortunates Who have Lost Mind and Chances for Fame, by the Struggle Necessitated for Graduation in Modern High Schools.

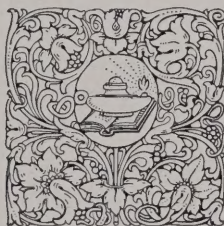

To the Faculty we do give and bequeath the right to look happy once more; a long needed rest from '25, relief in not being compelled to write zeros in grade books; the new Seniors with our compliments and extreme felicitations; also all the rest of our property which has not been disposed of and we hereby appoint said faculty sole executors of our last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We, the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-five hereby set our hands and seals, this fifteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-five.

Signed: HELEN HARDY.

CODICIL

In the event that any heir or heirs should make any attempt to break or alter this will, the bequest of that person or persons shall revert to the estate and shall be used in publishing that volume of such educational value compiled by the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-five entitled "How to Protect Oneself against the Powers that Be or 'Bluff.'"

Senior Class History

..GmG..

*"Not Enjoyment and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act that each tomorrow,
Finds us farther than to-day."*

LIKE all other children who have never attended school before, we of the class of '25 were very anxious to go. Nothing seemed so desirable to our inexperienced minds as this. At last the long-wished-for day arrived; and you may be sure not a single soul was tardy.

At the end of the first week we were still interested, but not quite so enthusiastic as at the beginning; and at the end of the month even our pristine energy was beginning to wane. However, we were not the kind to give up. We went right on from A, B, C's into readin', spellin', math, and history; and while we never again experienced the sensation of the first day, we were sufficiently interested to progress rapidly.

From the grammar grades we passed into the Junior High School. It was at this time that we were transferred from John Kerr to the Handley School, where the joys of exploration were again opened to us; but we soon settled down and plunged into our studies with new zeal. We were nearing the goal now. Already we could see ourselves as Seniors. We were being initiated into Latin, French, and Science; certainly we were entitled to some degree of consideration.

Then we came to our tenth year, the first year of Senior High. Thrills! We were at last recognized as a class and allowed to organize. Miss Silver and Mrs. Bond were elected sponsors. We got our class pins, entertained the Seniors, and in many other ways showed that we were progressive. After waiting so long we certainly weren't going to sit back in a corner.

In our Junior year about all we were able to do was to study and prepare for this, the culmination of all our former efforts. During this year, much to our regret, many of our classmates fell by the roadside unable to make the grade of scholastic achievement. However, we number on our roll the largest number of graduates that the school has ever had.

At last the plot is finished, the climax reached. We have given to Handley our best, and feel that we have received her best. Now it is fitting that the final curtain should closely follow the climax, lest the interest die. We hope that we shall leave behind us some footprints that will guide our followers in the right way:

*"Footprints that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
Some forlorn and ship-wrecked brother,
Seeing will take heart again."*

THELMA KELRICAN.

To the Class of Twenty-five

It would be impossible for a Milton
To give vent to emotions that arise
In the heart when one is trying
To pen the last few lines to his class.
Scenes of former times come and go
And the greatness of our opportunities
Gives to the world a brighter aspect.
Something must be said though
Of those essentials which make a nation,
And which are certainly found in "Twenty-five."
We have our ideals of truth
And beauty and of brotherly love
Set in our minds so strongly
That we will never forget them.
We have learned to realize
The vast amount of responsibility
That is connected with us in this life
And we honor and respect the causes
For which we pledge our lives;
Namely, the maintenance of our nation
The love of freedom and religion,
And the everlasting praise of God,
And the Class of Twenty-five.

MARY BOWMAN.

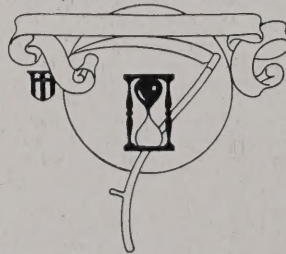

Class Song

When the last year of school comes and then is gone;
And the faces of friends fade away;
There is one lingering thought that we cannot forget,
Though we live to be old and gray.
It is of the dear school we are leaving now,
From old Handley we must part;
Tho' we'll all miss her so, as our pathways we go,
Her name will be kept in our heart.

We will honor her ideals all thru our days,
We will live as we've lived in the past,
We will always be true in whatever we do,
And the friendships we've formed will last.
So goodbye, dear old Handley, goodbye to you,
Remember us in your heart;
For we leave you today, to go sadly our way,
Goodbye, Handley, we now depart.

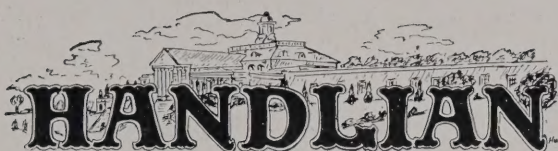

MARY BOWMAN.

Our Class

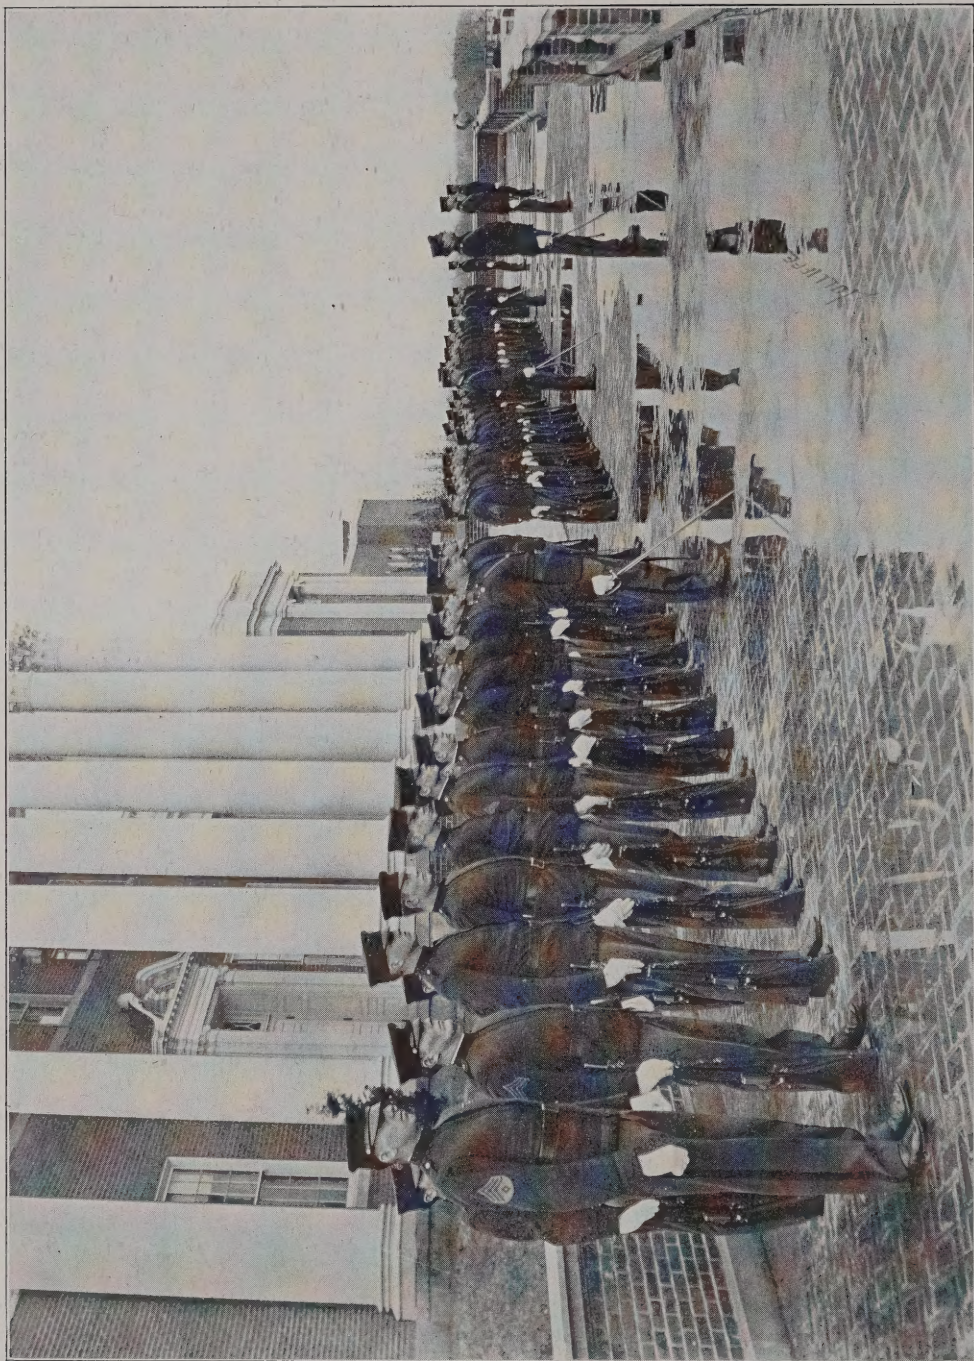

This is one of the pages of THE HANDLIAN for which nothing definite was planned, so we have thought it not amiss to use it for the purpose of conveying to the class of '25 the deep pleasure that we have had in associating with you, and in being your friends and coworkers. There never was a better group of young ladies and young gentlemen than you. We shall follow your future careers with interest. Our best wishes and God-speed go with you wherever you go.

General Organization

WE venture to assert that in no year since the inception of the student organization has it functioned more smoothly than it has this year.

All the work of the general organization this year has been done without friction.

Another outstanding feature of the general organization this year has been the fact that it has succeeded in collecting the largest percentage of general organization dues from the students of the Junior and Senior High Schools that has probably ever been collected. It can truthfully be said that student government is a success at Handley.

A RESUME

 HE aim of the Trail Blazer this year has been to present to the student body an opportunity to make use of their literary ability. Articles printed in the columns of the Trail Blazer must possess a great deal of merit, for they are carefully selected.

The expenses of the school paper in former years have been so great that debts were frequently incurred and the drain on the General Organization Treasury, which was the chief maintenance of publications was so great that it was decided the Trail Blazer must either discontinue or become self-supporting. Early in the fall term a meeting of the staff, selected by John Eddy, the editor-in-chief, was called and plans for the continuation of the publication were discussed. It was decided to have the paper printed on the school mimeograph this year and thus eliminate the expense of printing. The entire staff has co-operated loyally this year, and the success of the paper has depended almost solely upon it; for although the student-body was aware of the difficulties under which the Trail Blazer was being distributed, it could not in any measure appreciate time and labor expended, most especially by the Business Staff, in providing for the edition of the Trail Blazer.

A RESUME

 HE dramatic club is the first club to be organized at Handley, and no other organization has been more faithful to the traditions of the school than has this one. Every year it gives a play, the proceeds from which are turned over to the general organization treasurer to be used as that body sees fit. These yearly dramatic presentations have in every instance in the past been highly creditable to the club, and have shown that there is real dramatic talent in Handley. The play for this year has not as yet been decided upon, but the club is planning to give a play at commencement, and we may rest assured that it will be a success.

RESUME

 HE “H” Club is a new organization at the school, and has got under way in order that it might stimulate more interest in athletics; that it might uphold the standards of fair play and sportsmanship; that it might promote scholarship and regulate the wearing of letters and awards in all sports.

It is the aim and object of the organization to form a permanent institution for the control of athletics. The club has attempted to present the rules and regulations that it believes are for the best interests of Handley. It desires to get rid of existing evils in athletics if there are any and to foster the ideals of clean play.

The club desires to reward the athletes who fight for Handley and to make the “H” a cherished, loved, and honored emblem of supreme powers, high ideals, and gentlemanly conduct.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Football Resume

ALTHOUGH the football season was not so successful from the standpoint of games won, it was very successful from a number of other standpoints. Everywhere the team played it was complimented on its spirit of fight and clean play. A team which plays ten games and is only penalized for a distance of 85 yards or less than five yards per game is playing a type of football to be proud of.

To start the season the "Hi" eleven held the State Champion Eleven of Fishburne to a nothing to nothing score and made a long-to-be-remembered record at that school. The result of the game was made possible by the great playing of Hillyard and Sargent and the exceptional punting of Miller.

In the Martinsburg High game, although we outplayed the visitors and Zirkle tore our opponent's line to shreds, we lost because of a blocked kick. Hale of Martinsburg won the game for his team with a dropkick.

At Front Royal we again outplayed the opponents, but R. M. A. got away with a 0 to 0 score. Huntsberry and Hockman were the outstanding players in this fray. Huntsberry's play at guard was one of the features of the season.

At Hagerstown the breaks were against us, and a fumble on the three yard line cost the game, while an intercepted pass a few moments later lost it as Dorsey of Hagerstown raced 75 yards for the score. Hockman's pass to Sargent for a gain of 65 yards was the feature of the game.

Chambersburg was vanquished through the great exhibition of Hockman, who ran wild, making four gains for over 40 yards each and two of them going for touchdowns.

Staunton High School got away to a 0 to 0 score after Handley's passing and running attack netted 16 first downs to the opponents' 0. The passing of Hockman and Hollis, the receiving of Woodward and Sargent, and the great defense of Hillyard and Ritter were the outstanding points.

In a mud battle at A. M. A. the "Big Team" lost to the cadets in a hard fought battle to the tune of 24 to 0. Fumbles were responsible for all of the scores.

Turkey Day saw the famed Central High School team of Washington on the local field and they left after the game with the pigskin and a 35 to 0 victory. Hockman and Zirkle tore the line to pieces, but the locals could not keep up a sustained attack after Miller was hurt. The broken field running of Gorgon was too much.

On the all C. V. League team we were given Ritter at tackle and Hockman at half, and on the second team we had Sargent, Woodward, Zirkle and Miller. On the all-state Virginia High eleven Hillyard was honored at center and Woodward at end.

FOOTBALL

CAPT. RAMEY, COACH

HOCKMAN

Halfback and Captain

This year's captain, with his speed, headwork, and all-round football ability, has been the mainstay of the team on offense and defense. He is one of the best halfbacks in the State, and one of the best football men Handley has ever produced. Combining accurate passing with spectacular open-field running, he has always been in the lime-light. Altho hurt in the second game of the season, he came back with the same old spirit. His constant example and increasing work were an inestimable asset for the good spirit of the team.

ZIRKLE

Fullback

"Abe" has been a season's find. Playing his first year on the team, he has played an all-round hard game in the backfield. He put heart and soul into the game, and when he hit, he hit hard. He has three more years in which to become one of the greatest fullbacks that Handley has ever had.

HAWKINS

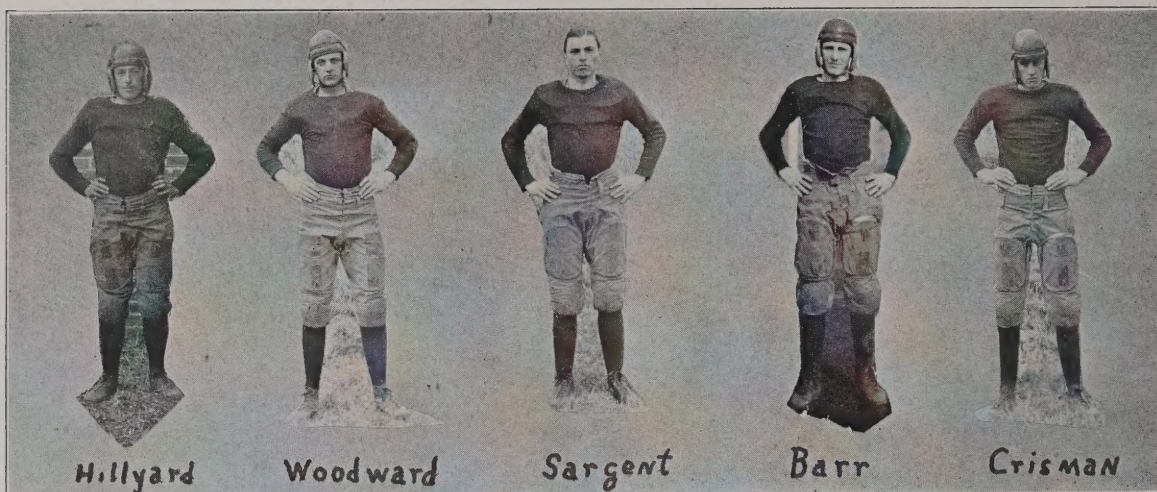

Quarterback

"Nat's" first year as a field general has been very successful. We admire his fighting spirit and real determination. Fast, aggressive and willing to learn, he has the future of a great player, and we expect great things of him in years to come.

MILLER

Tackle

A linesman, ever aggressive and always on the job, he has proved his value to the team by four years on the varsity. He could always be depended upon to get his man and anyone else who was in his path. With his educated toe, "Bevo" proved to be the best punter we had, and could always get the ball off high and hard. His place will be hard to fill on the 1925 team.

HILLYARD

Center and Captain-Elect

The Captain-Elect of the 1925 Handley eleven has by his unerring football ability come to be the best center in the state. He was elected as ALL-State High School center this year. No line seems able to hold him. He is an accurate passer from center, and can punt or run with the ball from the backfield. Much is expected of next year's team under the leadership of "Soup".

WOODWARD

End

An infallible defender of the left wing position and the most accurate receiver of passes on the team, "Moochie" showed at all times the caliber which made him a thorn in the offense of the opposing teams and caused his selection as All-State Virginia High School end. He has another year and will be watched with interest by all.

SARGENT

End

On the right end of the eleven we find "Snag". Few gains have been made around his end, for he is always on the job. An accurate receiver of passes, a sure tackler, fast and aggressive, he has been a mainstay on the team. Whenever the Sargent-Hockman combination began to work a gain was the result. He can punt and run the ends from the backfield and proved to be one of Handley's best.

BARR

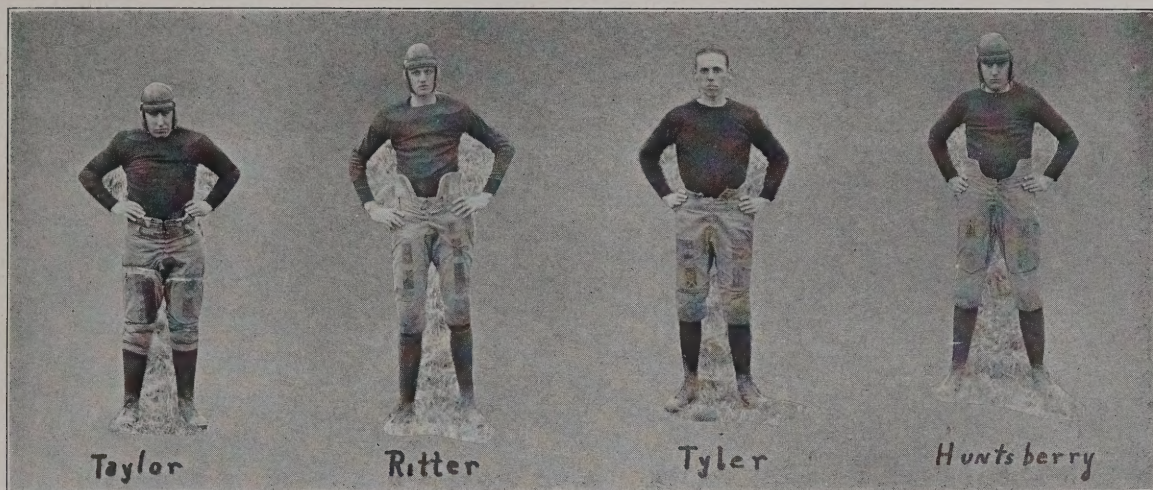

Halfback

"Tater" may not be a giant, but he makes up for his size by his speed and his change of field. Rushed into a game, he usually made a first down right off the bat. This year he has surprised many a larger man. Much is expected and much will be required of him another year.

CRISMAN

End

"Wes" is noted for his ability to "snag" a pass and get away. Playing at end, he won his letter by consistent playing thruout the year. He developed into one of the most consistent of Handley's wingmen. Always on the job we find him fighting hard.

TAYLOR

Guard

"Crackey" was a new man on the eleven but was a tower of strength in the line. A true great fighter with the love of the game at heart, he played in great form. With two more years "Crackey" should strike terror.

RITTER, F.

Tackle

Six-feet three of brute strength will make a great tackle; and this year, as his first year, proves that "Kidney" will be just that. The first year out he makes the All-Cumberland Valley League team and with two more years he will become a truly great player. With all the requisites of a good tackle he did his part and did it well.

TYLER

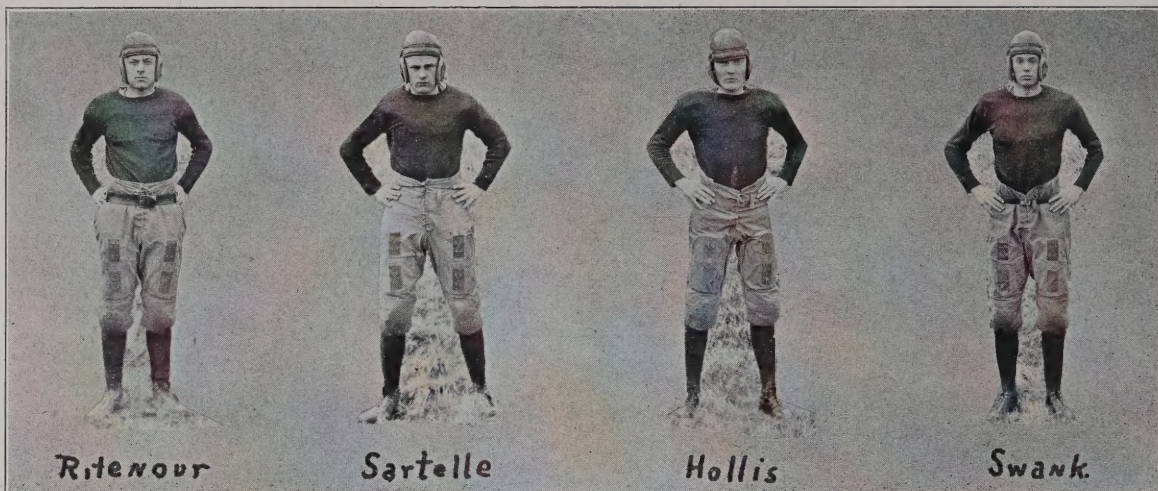

Guard

His light weight was his only handicap, but he made up for that deficiency in fight. Always in the play, hard to move and capable of "goin' thru", Frank was a mainstay in the line. He is a happy combination of a hard fighter and a true sport.

HUNTSBERRY

Center

Playing first at center, then at guard, then at tackle, "Ab" has been a most valuable man. We admire him for his willingness to play anywhere for the best interest of the team. He has the ability to play all three of the central line positions. "Fight" is his middle name, and much is expected of him another year.

RITENOUR

Fullback

"Tajoe" has surprised many big men by his hard tackling thruout the season. A dependable back with fair speed, he has the qualities of a real star, and will certainly be in the limelight another year. In addition he is one of the hardest drivers on the team

SARTELLE

Quarterback

Preston is one of the best safety men that Handley can boast of. A fair field general and a dependable back, he has proven of value thru the season, and should be even better another year.

HOLLIS

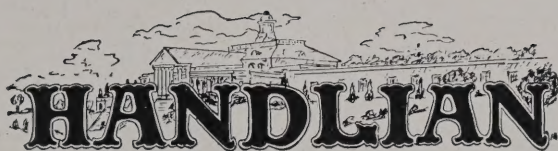

Halfback

When "Cris" was to receive "Bill" was on the other end. The most accurate passer of the team, he played a good game thruout the season. A fair change of pace, with a neat shift, coupled with his passing, will make him a most valuable man to the team another year.

SWANK

Halfback

"Jo" usually stopped the onslaughts of the opponents behind the line because he followed the ball. His ability to do this, a good head, and a wonderful drive, made him a valuable man in this his first year on the team. As a receiver of passes he ranks with the best, the "never say die spirit" is strong in Swank.

Basketball

THIS, the third basketball season at Handley, was a very long one and one of the hardest faced by any team at the local high school. The schedule was complete in every form. The team played in West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and at many points in Virginia, and met universities, colleges, academies and high schools throughout the territory covered.

Handley started the season with a rush, winning six games straight. They then left the winning column for a while, but occasionally came back with a victory. Near the end of the season the team work became better, and the squad ended the season with three victories.

The notable victories of the season were: the Fishburne game, in which the cadets lost 24-23, and the double defeat at the Waynesboro (Pa.) High School. Handley met its worst defeat at the hands of Jefferson High School of Roanoke who are the Virginia High School Champions this year. The locals were considerably off form during the game and lost 56-26.

Other interesting games of the season were with Staunton Military Academy, the secondary school champions of Virginia this year, with the V. M. I. Rats, and with the Washington and Lee University Freshmen. Handley lost these games but showed a good brand of ball and were commended for their fight and sportsmanship.

Eight men received letters this year, namely, Winkfield, Sargent, Hockman, Sale, Hillyard, Baker, Canter, Ritter, F. Three of these are veterans of other years. Winkfield, Sargent and Hockman; and there will be lost this year through graduation Winkfield, Sale and Canter. Winkfield will enter some higher institution next year but is undecided as to which one. Canter goes to Washington and Lee, while Sale will enter the University of Virginia.

Winkfield broke the state scoring record this year with 239 points. The other letter men scored as follows: Sale, 127; Sargent, 101; Hockman, 99; Baker, 36; and Canter, 34. The scorings of the entire squad this year exceeded the 800 mark. The scorings of the scrubs are too numerous to list here.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

HANDLIAN

HOCKMAN

Guard

"Cris" needs little introduction to the readers of this volume, for his ability in all athletics, his never say die spirit, and his congenial personality endear him to all. A great man on defense, a dangerous shot from the floor, a clever and elusive man with the ball he was a cog in a winning machine. With one more year on the Varsity he should be the finished product of the floor.

SALE

Center

"Doug," the "Black Cats" lanky center, has the record of outjumping every opponent save one in 20 starts. This is indeed a record of which we are proud, considering the kind of opposition against which he was pitted. Playing at forward some of the time, "Doug" amassed 127 points as a season's total, which was the second highest total. "Doug" graduates this year and his position will be a hard one to fill on next year's quint.

HILLYARD

Guard

We find "Soup" as a worthy running mate for "Cris." The stocky guard always played for the team, a quality which won him the title of the least individual player in the C. V. League. "Soup" did not score a single point the entire season, but he kept many an opposing forward from scoring, and he added to Handley's score on more than one occasion when he passed to his more experienced teammates. Great things are expected of him another year.

SARGENT

Forward

Playing first at guard, then at forward, and several times at center, "Snag" has been always ready to do his part for the team and the school. To say that he has done his part expresses it mildly, for he has done more than his part. A brilliant floor man, a clever shot, a quick thinker, a man of unerring judgment, he has led the attack time and time again with success. "Snag" has another year on the team, and we look forward to his last year as his greatest year in athletics.

WINKFIELD

Forward

"Wink" has been the scoring feature of the Handley Quint for the past four years and this year he reached the pinnacle of his most successful career by scoring 239 points and gaining the scoring honors of Virginia. In addition he was high score man of the league. "Wink" thruout the year has been covered by opposing guards as no other man, but he continued to amass points. "Winky" leaves us this year, but the whole school will watch his college career,

RITTER, F.

Center

As an understudy of Sale, "Kidney" played a consistent game during his time on the squad. His great height enabled him to gain the jump on most opponents. He is a dangerous man under the basket, and should become a mainstay of the team in the next two years.

BAKER

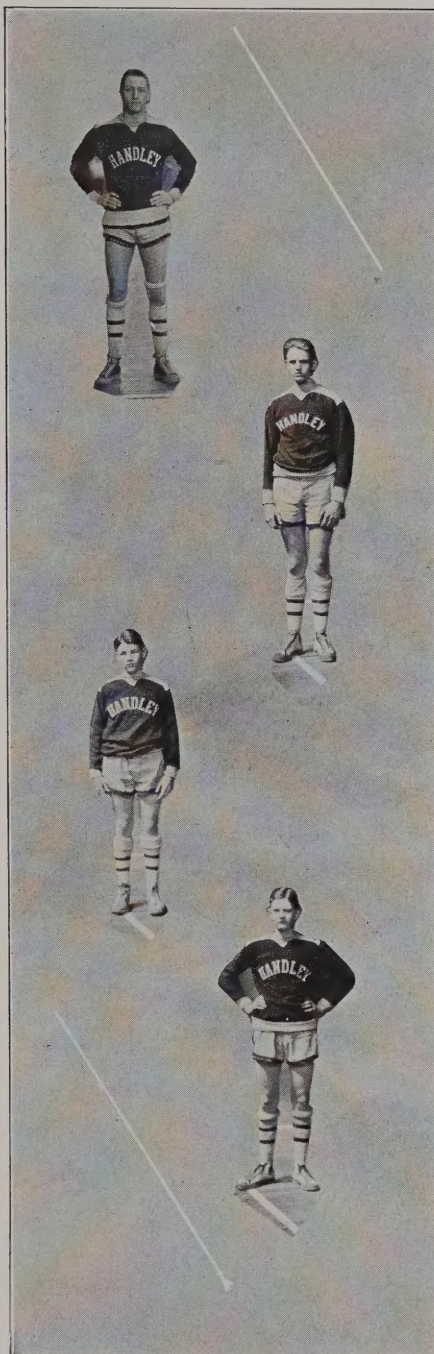

Forward

"Ikey" won his letter for the first time by his consistent play the entire time and by his never-to-be-forgotten record at Waynesboro when he entered the hall of fame. Handicapped by size, he makes up for that deficiency by fight and true sportsmanship. We expect him to be the mainstay of the quint in future years.

CANTER

Forward

Canter has won his letter for the first time after a year of hard work. No man on the squad was a harder worker than this candidate. A general, all-round good man, an exceptional shot from the sidelines, and an aggressive player, his loss will be keenly felt in the coming campaigns of the floor.

BASEBALL SQUAD

Baseball: A Prospect

WHEN this annual goes to press, it is impossible, of course, to make any predictions concerning the success of the baseball team. However, if we are to judge from the enthusiasm manifested in the sport, we may look forward to a most successful season. Many of the regulars of last year are back in harness, and the sound of the ahs against the horsehide may be heard every day. This year we are going to play all games on the stadium instead of at the fair grounds or the baseball park. This will insure a good crowd of rooters for every game.

At a meeting of last year's letter men some time ago Frank Woodward, third baseman on last year's team, was elected captain of the nine. Hockman, Sargent, Miller, Winkfield and Hollis, of the stellar aggregation of last year, are back in uniform and are expected to perform in their usually brilliant fashion. In addition to these Canter, Peery, Anderson and Crisman are out. Under the able direction of Coach Yates, who has coached baseball here successfully for five years, we are assured of a creditable team this season.

HANDLIAN

"MOUCHIE" WOODWARD

Captain and Third Base

"Mouchie" held down the hot corner of the diamond in great style last season, and we expect to see him stab many a liner this year. He has good judgment and a wonderful ability to peg to first.

"CRIS" HOCKMAN

Pitcher

Last year "Cris" assumed regular mound duty when Patton's arm went bad, and right well did he do his work. The burden of the pitching will in all probability fall upon him this year, but he is equal to the task.

"SNAG" SARGENT

Catcher

"Snag" is a born catcher. He can stop the ball, throw, and guess plays. He will be the terror of many a man who tries to steal second this year.

GARLAND CANTER

Pitcher

We are expecting this boy to do great things this year. As an understudy of Hockman he should develop into a remarkable pitcher. He has a good arm and a good head.

"BEVO" MILLER

Outfielder

Miller is a good fielder and a great hitter as was admirably demonstrated in the game with S. V. A. last year. He ought to fatten his batting average this season.

HANDLIAN

MARSHALL WINKFIELD Second Base

Not many hits were registered thru second last year, and it was due to the fact that this nimble athlete prevented such occurrences. He is a good hitter and a fine hand at "scooping them up." This ought to be a great year for him.

WILLIAM HOLLIS Outfielder

Hollis can do something of everything. He is a pitcher and a general utility man. He is expected to fill in on many occasions when regulars will be out of the game.

FRANK ANDERSON Short Stop

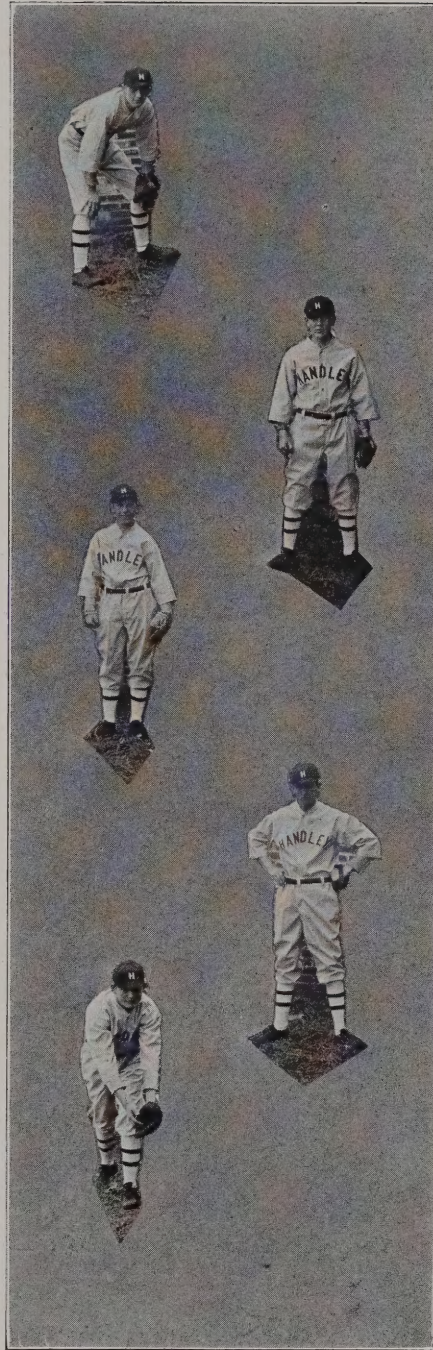

Anderson is a new man on the team, but his showing in practice has been good. He should make a worthy successor to Lewis.

WESLEY CRISMAN Outfielder

Crisman is out for the first time this year. If he can catch baseballs as well as he can "snag" passes, he ought to be a wonder.

ALAN PEERY First Base

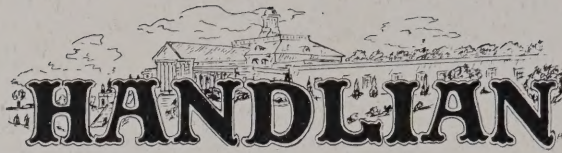

This lanky Handleyite is expected to play the initial sack in great style. He is built for a first baseman, and we expect him to develop into an all-round man.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL SQUAD

Jokes

Kathleen Walters to Captain Ramey in History class: "What were Columbus' reasons for discovering America?"

Cap: "He wanted to find a short route to the Indies."

Kitty: "Say, why didn't he wait till they finished the Panama Canal?"

"Foiled again," said the nickel cigar, as it was being wrapped up.

George: "Is her beauty striking?"

Bell: "Well, er—her-eye-lashes."

SOUR GRAPES

*Girls who 'gainst men mean things have said
Have never in love's sunshine basked;
The girl who says she'll never wed,
Is she who has never been asked.*

Mrs. Buckley to wash-woman: "Mandy, have you seen Constance's fiance?"

Mandy: "No'm, it ain't been in the wash yet."

Miss Knox to Otis Sargent: "Otis, what is the Japanese national hymn?"

Snag: "California, Here I Come."

Favorite song of the ducks: "Waddle I do?"

Hazel: "I see in the paper that three persons were killed in a feud."

Meda: "Those cheap little cars are so dangerous."

Mr. Leggett to Ikey Baker: "What is the quickest way to produce sawdust?"

Ikey: "Why, er——"

Mr. Leggett: "Come, come! Use your head, use your head."

Ab. Huntsberry to Edith Wootten: "What do you mean by telling Kathryn I'm a fool?"

Edith, sweetly: "I'm sorry. I didn't know it was a secret."

Sign in Ku Kluxer's office window: "Will be back at once. But to lynch."

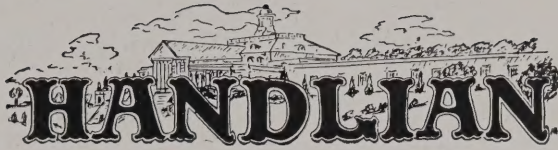

Kindly Visitor: "I'd like to see Convict 515, please, if he's in."

Diogenes (meeting Athenian College Freshman): "Well, Jack, whaddaya know?"

A. C. F.: "Oh, nothing much." And Diogenes blew out his lantern and went home to bed.

Cris Hockman, in football game: "Time out! I lost another tooth!"

Referee: "Next time swallow it 'n don't be holdin' up the game."

PEOPLE I ADORE

1. The party that dropped the banana peel I slipped on.
2. The chap in the rear seat who has seen the show and wants to make sure his friend won't miss a trick.
3. The teacher who gave me 20 on a quiz.
4. The person who threw away the chewing gum which found its way to my heel.
5. All those addicted to reading aloud the subtitles at the movie show.
6. Candidates that are on the fence, in other words, ALL candidates for the office I crave.

Mr. Crim: "When I was a boy we had some mighty queer notions. One night our whole village went up on a hill top and waited for the world to come to an end."

Robert Kerlin: "And did it?"

Good jobs for High School graduates:

Calling out stations on an ocean liner.

Deck swabber on a submarine.

Chief linesman for the wireless telephone company.

Stoker on an oil-burner.

Selling electric fans to Esquimo land and ear tabs in the South Sea Isles.

Madeline: "Did you know the new postal laws prohibit the sending of love letters in the Mails?"

Charlotte: "No, why?"

Madeline: "To protect the U. S. males, they tell me!"

Jane: "Pola Negri is Russian, isn't she?"

Walter: "I guess so, these movie stars are all pretty fast."

"Have you heard about the new mascot Sing Sing has?"

"No, what is it?"

"They have just procured a young zebra."

AMERICAN MAID BREAD

It is made of the stuff that makes athletes.
It produces health, vigor, snap. It's all good and, say, it's

100 PER CENT PURE

Nothing but the very best that goes into the making of good bread is used in either of our plants. Every new and most modern equipment that assures cleanliness and sanitary handling completes Caskey's bakeries. Honest weights give you the benefit of bigger loaves, giving you more for your money. The highest grade of ingredients that's possible to be had, goes into the bread, which guarantees you 100 per cent pure.

SONNET TO SPRING

Spring is here, and the birds
Sing from the budding trees;
And their very presence there,
Seems to be answered by the breeze.
King Winter has given up his reign,
As if the birds are messengers
From that unknown plain,
Where Spring with all its glory
Breaks down upon the world;
Then all the lovely flowers,
In answer to the call,
Give to the world their perfume,
Their perfume which is, their all.
